In "The Silver King," the great Drury Lane melodrama to be the vehicle of the Permanent Players next week, Mr. Winthrop will have a role with which he is perfectly familiar and for which he is fitted both vocally and physically. In addition, Mr. Winthrop's early education in England makes him in full sympathy with this type of drama.

To Patrons of the
WINNIPEG THEATRE:

"The Silver King," Wilson Barret's great Drury Lane drama, will be the attraction by the Permanent Players all next week. We particularly urge you to see this. For one reason, our season is getting near its close and you will want to see all the good things we have in mind for you. For another reason, you will be able to judge of its worth by the fact that Sir Martin Harvey is reviving "The Silver King" in the cast right now. "The Silver King" in film version was one of the greatest ever shown in Winnipeg when William Faversham enacted the chief role before the camera. It's going to be a show you will enjoy and remember. Come and then pass the word along to your friends.
